retail productivity excellence ■

Do you have the right number of labour hours to run each store effectively?

Resource imbalance drives inefficiencies.

swl

Is your store
resource aligned
to daily workload
demand every day?

Misalignment risks lost sales
and poor experience.

swl

Can you identify where costs are bleeding – and understand why?

Risk lies in the unknown &
unquantified.

swl

Do you have one
best practice for
every in-store
task?

Inconsistency breeds
inefficiency.

swl

Do you know your real-time customer insights – age, gender, and shopping missions?

Missed opportunities go unmeasured.

swl

Do you measure your shopper experience – by store and trading hour?

Managers lack critical insights to drive a
customer-first culture.
